

ProData Consult strengthens its board of directors

ProData Consult expands its board of directors with two experienced profiles, Bente Overgaard and Susanne Larsson, who will contribute to the continued strengthening of the company's management, network and international development.

"ProData Consult is developing at a rapid pace and experiencing increasing demand for high-quality consultants and our unique 'Nearshoring-as-a-Service' solution, which offers Nordic companies a very competitive combination of high quality and scalability. We are pleased to welcome Bente Overgaard and Susanne Larsson, who will contribute to the board work with their valuable experience, competencies and extensive network among current and coming clients in Denmark and across our international markets that account for an increasing share of our business," says Rune Lillie Gornitzka, partner at Polaris and a member of the board of directors of ProData Consult.

Bente Overgaard is a professional board member and consultant focused on digitisation, organisational development, strategy and project management.

Her current board positions include, among other things, Finansiell Stabilitet, Johannes Fogs Fond, SP Group and Energinet.dk. She has a strong network in the financial sector and has chaired the board of directors of JN Data and held a position as board member at BEC. Until 2016, she held a number of management positions at the Nykredit Group where she was most recently a Group Managing Director responsible for IT, HR and project management. Since 2017, she has been affiliated with CBS Executive Board Education as a Program Director responsible for the financial board education.

Bente Overgaard holds a master's degree in Political Science from Aarhus University with subsequent educational courses at London Business School, Insead, the Board Academy and CBS Executive Board Education.

Susanne Larsson is COO & Head of Client Engagement at fintech company Moneyflow Group and an independent consultant focused on business development and implementation of commercial strategies in growth companies.

She has years of experience creating sustainable growth in international consultancies, identifying new business opportunities and ensuring a structured approach to establishing new client relationships and expanding existing relations. In 2014-2018, Susanne Larsson contributed to the re-establishment of KPMG in Denmark as Partner and Head of Clients & Markets, while holding the same role in KPMG's Swedish business for a period of time. Prior to that she held various prominent positions at KPMG based in London, Qatar and Singapore.

Susanne Larsson holds a marketing education from the Swedish School of Economics and has subsequently completed educational courses at the International Management Institute of Lucerne in Switzerland and Wharton University.

In addition to the new members, Bente Overgaard and Susanne Larsson, the board of directors of ProData Consult is comprised of Chairman Agner N. Mark, Anders Gratte, Jens Kyhnæb and Rune Lillie Gornitzka.
