

17-06-2021

Announcement

TRIAX CEO resigns

Peter Lyhne Uhrenholt has informed the Board of Directors that he resigns from his position as Chief Executive Officer at TRIAX with effect from 30 June 2021.

Peter has been with TRIAX for more than eight years and has now decided that the time has come for change and to pursue other opportunities outside TRIAX.

“We regrettably have to say goodbye to Peter, who has been an instrumental part of the TRIAX journey to become an even more relevant connectivity partner to professionals globally”, says Morten Jørgensen, Vice Chairman of the Board.

Since the announcement of the merger between TRIAX and Ikusi Multimedia, the two companies have been working dedicated on integrating the two businesses. Now, the recruitment process for a new CEO, who will continue the integration process and the development of the company, has been initiated. In the meanwhile, the integration work continues as planned.

“Together with the owners and the board of the new company, we have a clear strategy that focuses on accelerating our digital transformation and supporting our customers and partners with relevant, high-quality products and solutions and excellent service and support,” says Morten Jørgensen.

Chief Financial Officer, Carsten Frees will take up the position as interim CEO until the new CEO is appointed.