Remuneration Policy related to the Executive Board and Board of Directors

Polaris Management A/S' remuneration policy aims at attracting, retaining, developing and rewarding employees who contribute to the profitable growth of the Company. The policy ensures that remuneration is credible, effective and fair, that the ratio fixed and variable salary is adequate, proportional and balanced and that the overall remuneration is aligned with sound and efficient risk management principles and does not encourage excessive risk-taking. The policy has not been changed during the year.

Members of the Board of Directors and Executive Board are compensated individually and on a fixed remuneration basis only.
